	Read the following Passage to answer question 88 & 89 In our approach to life, be it pragmatic or otherwise a basic fact that confronts us squarely and unmistakably is the desire for peace, security and happiness. Different forms of life at different levels of existence make up the teeming denizens of this earth of ours. And, no matter whether they belong to the higher groups such as human beings or to the lower groups such as animals, all beings primarily seek peace, comfort and security. Life is as dear to a mute creature as it is to a man. Even the lowliest insect strives for protection against dangers that threaten its life. Just as each one of us wants to live and not to die, so do all other creatures.
88	The author's main point is that (1) Different forms of life are found on earth (2) Different levels of existence are possible in nature (3) Peace and security are the chief goals of all living beings (4) Even the weakest creature struggles to preserve its life
