5. Different regional offices have reported that action has been initiated for cancellation of candidature in respect of several candidates who were found to be in possession of mobile phones in the examination halls. They have already issued show-cause notice to these candidates. Such candidates will not be eligible for PET/Medical examination despite their name being included in the list of qualified candidates.

6. In addition to the 1006 additional candidates declared qualified in the Paper-I for the post of I.O. in NCB, several candidates who have exercised option for the purpose of I.O. in the NCB have been included in the general list for male and female candidates selected for PET/ Medical examination. The additional candidates will be subjected to PEST/PET/Medical examination at standard prescribed for NCB later.

7. The list of recommended candidates is purely PROVISIONAL and subject to the candidates fulfilling all the eligibility conditions prescribed in the Notice of said examination and also subject to, among other things, thorough verification of their identity with reference to their photographs, signatures, handwritings, etc. on the application forms, admission certificates, etc.

8. The category status in respect of the candidates belonging to reserve categories has been indicated along with their roll numbers. It is important for such candidates to note that they have been declared qualified only for the category mentioned against their Roll Numbers. If any candidate does not actually belong to the category mentioned against his Roll Number or his roll number and name do not match, he may not be eligible to be included in the list. It is, therefore, in the interest of the candidates concerned to immediately contact the respective Regional Offices of the Commission in all such cases where they do not belong to the category shown against their Roll Numbers.

9. The result of this examination is also available on SSC's Website: <http://ssc.nic.in>. The Commission will be placing marks of the candidates, the details entered by them in the first page of OMR Answer Sheet, the responses marked by them against the question in the second page of OMR Answer Sheet and correct keys of different Test Form Nos. used by the Commission in Paper-I in due course. The list of the candidates awarded 'ZERO' marks due to various reasons will also be available on the website shortly.
