CERTIFICATE VERIFICATION

Certificate Verification is done to verify the eligibility of the claims made by the candidates in the on-line application. It is done before Oral Test / Counselling, as the case may be. Certificate Verification is meant only for confirming the eligibility of the candidates and it is not the next stage of the selection process. After confirming the claims made by the candidates for certificate verification, the actual selection process will begin.

23. PROCEDURE OF SELECTION:

a) Posts included in Group - I Services:

The selection to the posts included in Group - I Services, will be made in three successive stages viz., (i) Preliminary Examination for selection of candidates for admission to the Main Written Examination (ii) Main Written Examination and (iii) Oral test in the shape of an Interview. The Preliminary Examination is meant to serve as a screening test only. The marks obtained in the Preliminary Examination by the candidates who are declared qualified for admission to the Main Written Examination will not be counted for determining their final order of merit. The number of candidates to be admitted to the Main Written Examination will be fifty times the number of candidates to be recruited having regard to the rule of reservation of appointments. However, in each reservation group, all the candidates, who secure the same marks as that of the cut off marks of their reservation groups shall also be admitted to the Main Written Examination, though the number of candidates to be admitted to the Main Written Examination may exceed 1:50 ratio (Announced in Notification No.49/2012 dt.16.11.2012). Before such admission to Main Examination, the candidates have to produce the documents in support of their eligibility criteria claimed in the application.

Once the eligibility list for the Main Written Examination in the ratio of 1:50 for the posts included in Group-I Services and 1:10 for the posts included in Group-II Services is published, it is the responsibility of candidates (in the said list) to send the documents in support of their claims in the on-line application within prescribed time. Those who do not send the documents and who are rejected in Certificate Verification are not eligible or allowed to write the Main Written Examination. No list will be published subsequently in the place of such rejected candidates or candidates who failed to send documents for verification.

b) Posts for which selection is made on the basis of Written Examination and Oral Test:

Where the selection is made on the basis of both, Main Written Examination / Written Examination and Oral Test, the Main Written Examination / Written Examination will precede the Oral Test. Before the Oral Test candidates in a suitable ratio depending on the vacancy in each reservation category as decided by the Commission will be called for "Certificate Verification". So candidates called for Certificate Verification must be aware that this exercise is done only to ascertain their eligibility to participate in further selection process and it cannot be construed as the exact list of candidates to be admitted to the oral test. After due verification the proper ranking is arrived by deleting the ineligible candidates.

If the number of vacancies notified / reserved to be filled up for any one or more of the reservation groups (viz., Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Caste

(Arunthathiyars), Scheduled Tribes, Most Backward Classes / Denotified

Communities, Backward Classes (other than Muslim) or Backward Classes (Muslim) or General Turn is five and above, the number of candidates to be admitted to the Oral Test shall be two times the number of vacancies for which recruitment has to be made against those reservation groups based on the marks obtained by the candidates at the Main Written Examination or Written Examination, as the case may be. Similarly, if the number of vacancies in any one or more of the remaining reservation groups for the same recruitment is four and below, the number of candidates to be admitted to the Oral Test from those particular reservation group(s) shall be three times the number of vacancies for which recruitment has to be made against those reservation group(s). In respect of the posts, the total cadre strength of which is one only and for which the rule of reservation of appointments does not apply, the number of candidates to be admitted to the oral test on the basis of the marks obtained at the Written Examination will be three. The final selection will be made on the basis of the total marks obtained by the candidates at the Main Written Examination or Written Examination, as the case may be, and Oral Test taken together subject to the rule of reservation of appointments wherever it applies. Appearance in all the papers in the Main Written Examination / Written Examination and for Oral Test is compulsory. The candidates who have not appeared for any of the subjects in the Main Written Examination / Written Examination will not be considered for selection even if they secure the minimum qualifying marks for selection. The marks obtained by the candidates appearing for the Oral Test, both in the Written Examination as well as in the Oral Test will be displayed in the Notice Board in the Office of the Tamil Nadu Public Service Commission in the evening either on the last day fixed for Oral Test or on the succeeding working day. The same will also be made available on the Internet in the Commission's website www.tnpsc.gov.in.

(c) Posts for which selection is made on the basis of Written Examination only:

The Written examination is conducted in OMR method objective in nature (multiple choice type question). The answer papers are evaluated through computers and the marks of all candidates along with their respective community are published in the Commission's web-site. The details regarding the overall rank and rank in their respective communal category are also provided for that particular recruitment in respect of each candidate. The details of distribution of vacancies is also hosted by the Commission. The candidates by correlating the ranking given as above, with the number of vacancies in his / her communal category, he / she may know the possibility of his / her selection.

EXERCISING OF OPTION:-

The rank wise list of candidates summoned for counselling will be announced in the Commission's website. On the day prior to the date of counselling, all the original certificates will be verified and application admitted finally then the candidates will be allowed to participate in the counselling. At the time of counselling, the number of vacancies in the posts / units will be exhibited through a video projector. Based on the option exercised and on eligibility, the candidates will be allotted and orders of selection issued.
