

More than 8000 Jobs coming up in Bihar Health Dept, Recruitment to begin for ANM & Dresser Posts

A massive recruitment drive is on the way! Bihar Health Department is going to announce for more than 8000 vacancies. Recruitment process will be held for selecting candidates to the posts of ANM, Dresser, etc.

The upcoming vacancies will surely open up employment opportunities for many candidates. As per the reports, 7000 vacancies are available for ANM post only. 1300 vacancies are available in other posts of the department.

Citing the shortage of dressers, the Minister of State Health Department has mentioned that out of the total capacity of 1916 dresser posts, only 329 posts are filled.

The department was actively involved for recruiting candidates on a regular basis for dresser post till 2001. However the amendments were made in the service guidelines. The vacancy notification for dresser post will be released soon.
