

The Hindu

Vaniyambadi job fair on Sept. 10

The district administration is organising a special job fair on September 10 at Vaniyambadi. More than 150 firms and training establishments are expected to take part in the fair and select candidates for jobs.

It would be held from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. at Islamiah Arts and Science College, Vaniyambadi. Tamil Nadu Skill Development Corporation is also participating in the fair to extend training in the skills required by companies. In addition, the services of Overseas Manpower Corporation in the State will also be available for the benefit of candidates who wish to go abroad for employment. Candidates can also get advice on self-employment. Unemployed youth have been asked to make use of the opportunity and attend the fair, Collector S.A. Raman, said in a press release.