

422 vacancies in Health Dept to be filled soon in AP

Health Minister Kamineni Srinivas said at a press conference here on Saturday that 422 vacant posts in the State Medical and Health Department would be filled through AP Public Service Commission (APPSC).

The State government is taking steps for improving the quality of the human resource in the department by enhancing skills and extending the logistical support required to render better services.