

Assam CM's Directive to APSC

GUWAHATI, June 18 - Chief Minister Sarbananda Sonowal has asked the Assam Public Service Commission (APSC) to declare results of civil services examinations within three hours of completion of viva-voce.

The Chief Minister also asked the APSC to declare results of viva-voce within 'one day' for general candidates appearing in different examinations conducted by the commission.

Sonowal also asked the APSC to declare the pending results of Assistant Engineer (Civil) and Junior Engineer (Civil) of Irrigation Department held in August 2015 and February 2016 immediately and sought the reasons for the delay in declaration of results.

Order to this effect was approved by the Chief Minister today.
