

GPSC class I and II exams likely in September

TNN | May 8, 2016, 06.02 AM IST

Ahmedabad: In a press release, Gujarat Public Service Commission has said that following a recent court directive, it will invite applications online for exams to be conducted for the recruitment of class I and II staff. Officials have cited September 10, 11, and 18 as probable dates for the mains examination.

The release also said that all selected candidates, whose numbers are displayed on the GPSC website, will have to apply online for the mains examination. The form will have to identify selected subjects and the preferred language for the exam.

The commission will announce the dates for filling up forms in due course.