Staff Selection Commission (SSC) CGLE Tier 1 Exam 2016 results to be declared soon

Staff Selection Commission (SSC) will be declaring the results of CGLE Tier 1 Examination 2016 by next week, as per reports. The Combined Graduate Level (CGL) Tier-I online exam was conducted from August 27 to September 11. The results would be declared on their official website ssc.nic.in.

Candidates who clear Tier I examination would be eligible for Tier II, scheduled to be held in November, 2016.

Steps to check SSC CGLE Tier I results:

- 1) Visit the official website - ssc.nic.in
- 2) The homepage will be displayed.
- 3) Click on the link which says 'SSC CGL Tier 1 Results'
- 4) Enter required details such as your roll no, name, date of birth, etc.
- 5) You will get access to your results. Download the result and take a printout for future reference.

For raising objection against answer keys to CGL:

Since the deadline for raising an objection against the answer keys was September 26, the commission has said, "The Commission assures all candidates who have, through the facility provided on Commission's websites, applied for making representation against answers and made payment by 5 PM on 26.9.2016 will be allowed to make representation for the full amount paid by them."

Staff Selection Commission's information regarding CGL can be accessed on the official site - ssc.nic.in under the title - Notice with regard to challenges/responses of candidates for CGLE-2016.
