488 youths get jobs at mela

As many as 488 of the 1465 youths who appeared were selected at a job mela organised by GVMC at Swarnabharati auditorium on Monday.

While 80 will go to the second-level interview, the remaining will be given placement orders soon, said a GVMC press release.

As many as 22 firms, including BPOs, automobile and mobile phone showrooms, real estate companies and pharmacies, participated in the mela.

Those who did not get jobs in the mela would be given skill development training for three months in a field of their choice, the press release said.

More job melas will be conducted in future.
