

APDUEA demands fresh interview

Arunachal Pradesh Diploma Unemployed Engineers Association (APDUEA) has claimed illegal appointments against seven vacant posts of Extension Officer RE) on officiating basis in Rural Development Department.

Armed with documents obtained through Right To Information (RTI), the association in a release stated that the appointments were made in total violation of recruitment rules and process by not floating any advertisement against the vacant posts.

The appointments were allegedly made on February 4, 2014 (1), March 3, 2014 (1), July 23, 2015 (4) and June 1, 2016 (1), the association said.

APDUEA demanded immediate cancellation of all those appointments and to conduct fresh interview by floating advertisement afresh against those posts.
