

The Arunachal Times

CM exhorts youth to grab the opportunity of IAF recruitment rally

ITANAGAR, Sep 10: Chief Minister Pema Khandu exhorted all eligible youths, especially those unemployed, to take full advantage of the proposed Air Force Airmen recruitment rallies in the state next month.

The Indian Air Force is conducting two separate Airmen recruitment rallies to select candidates for Airmen Group 'X' (Technical) and Group 'Y' (Non-Technical) jobs at Itanagar on October 1 at Tezu on October 5.

Terming the rallies as an opportunity to serve in the elite Indian Air Force, Pema underscored the importance of wide publicity of the rallies through local media and radio well in advance besides coordinating with the local administrations to attract participation of maximum number of youths.

The chief minister assured Squadron Leader VPV Baliga, Commanding Officer, 11 Airmen Selection Center of the Indian Air Force of the state government's full support and cooperation for conduction of the proposed rally.

While expressing gratitude to IAF on behalf of the people, Pema requested for recruitment of maximum number of youths of the state in the force.

Highlighting the salient features of the rally, the Commanding Officer informed that there is no vacancy limitation. However, the selection will be on purely merit and performance basis.