

CM seeks massive IAF Recruitment Rally

ITANAGAR, Jul 11: Expressing the hope that many youths from the state gets recruited in the Indian Air Force; Chief Minister Kalikho Pul has called to conduct the ensuing Airmen Recruitment Rally in Arunachal Pradesh in a massive way.

Welcoming the proposal of the Indian Air Force to conduct two separate Air Men Recruitment Rallies at Itanagar on Oct 1 for the western zone and at Tezu on Oct 5 for eastern zone of the state, the CM assured to provide full logistic support in terms of man power requirement, transportation, accommodation, etc for the rally.

Instructing the DC Capital Complex and Tezu to select proper sites for the recruitment rally, CM Pul asked them to make all necessary arrangements for the rally and provide basic requirements at the rally sites. He told them to coordinate with the DCs of other districts and also instructed them to arrange for to and fro journey of the candidates who will be coming to take part in the rally.

The CM has also appealed to all the aspiring youths of the state to take maximum benefit and make best use of the opportunity.

Briefing the Chief Minister about the plan of Recruitment Rally, Squadron Leader VPV Baliga sought the support of the state govt for successful conduct of the rally for maximum participation.

Squadron Leader VPV Baliga informed that the Rally will be conducted at Itanagar to cover West Siang, Upper Subansiri, Kra Daadi, Lower Subansiri, Kurung Kumey, Papumpare, East Kameng, West Kameng and Tawang and at Tezu to cover Siang, Upper Siang, East Siang, Dibang Valley, Lower Dibang Valley, Anjaw, Lohit, Namsai, Changlang, Tirap and Longding.

Highlighting the salient feature of the rally, he informed that there is no vacancy limitation; however the selection will be purely based on merit and performance of candidates.