

The Tribune

Medical association alleges delay in recruitment of doctors in Haryana

Haryana Civil Medical Services Association (HCMSA) on Wednesday alleged delay in the recruitment of doctors by the Haryana Government.

HCMSA members at a press conference here alleged that all claims of the government on recruitment were only on paper.

Sharing departmental details, doctors alleged that there are only 33 ENT specialists in Haryana, 46 medicine, 45 surgeons, 15 skin, 14 chest and TB, five forensic and 12 radiology specialists.

Jind, Mewat, Kaithal, Bhiwani, Fatehabad and Hisar are worst affected with shortage of doctors, they alleged.