

The Northlines

Date for KAS Prelims not finalised yet

Jammu: The J&K Public Service Commission has not finalised the date for the KAS Prelims due to prevailing unrest in the Kashmir Valley.

“We have extended the date for filling up of application forms. The directions have been issued keeping in view the absence of internet services/ connectivity in the Valley for some time. It has been observed that some aspirants have faced difficulty in submitting their online applications for the forthcoming preliminary Examinations 2016 from Kashmir division. We have not decided the exam date yet, said Shakil-ur-Rehman JKPSC Controller.

Earlier, the proposed date for prelims was September 25.