

JKPSC extends date of applying for KAS posts

The Jammu and Kashmir Public Service Commission (JKPSC) has extended the date for filing of online application forms for Combined Competitive (Preliminary) Examination, 2016 and for the posts of Veterinary Assistant Surgeon.

"Due to internet gag candidates have not been able to fill their online application forms on due date, so we have decided to extend the date of filing of online application forms for Combined Competitive (Preliminary) Examination, 2016 and for the posts of Veterinary Assistant Surgeon," Shakeel-Ul-Rehman, Secretary, J&K Public Service Commission told Greater Kashmir.

He said a notice has already been issued to the general public vide Notification No. PSC/EXM/2016/52 and 15-PSC (DR-P) of 2016 and the date shall be extended by at least 15 days as and when the internet services are restored.

Shakeel-Ul-Rehman also said that the interviews for the posts of Assistant Professor in many subjects have been postponed and the next date would be notified separately.