

Govt issued orders to PSC to report vacancies on supernumerary posts for SC/ST candidates

The government has issued orders creating 25 supernumerary posts of lab technicians for SC/ST candidates in the Medical Education department. The posts reserved for SC category will be 20 and for ST category, five.

The Director of Medical Education has been given permission to report these vacancies to the Public Service Commission, an official release announced here on Monday.