

MECA plea on job reservation in Kerala

The Muslim Employees Cultural Association (MECA) has called for instituting a commission to conduct a study into the number of unavailed reserved jobs during the previous 16 years. The association has also urged the government to clear the backlog of 18,525 backlog of reserved jobs meant for backward sections that have been identified by the Justice Narendran Commission. They submitted a petition to the Chief Minister and others Ministers raising various demands including re-fixing reservations in proportion to the population and establishing an Arabic University.
