

The New Indian Express

Mega Job fair in Kochi, 5000 vacancies reported

KOCHI: In a major fillip to hundreds of job seekers across the state, the national career service under the union ministry by associating with the Society for integrated growth of the nation will conduct a mega job fair in the city on Sunday. The job fair to be held for free at St Alberts higher secondary school will be start by 10 am.

According to the organisers more than 100 multinational companies will participate in the job fair which can be attended who have qualification of above 5th standard. The companies have so far registered over 5000 job opportunities in the field of I T , Automobile, Nursing, Finance, Travel, Tourism, Hotel, Public relation, Human Resource, Textile, House keeping, sales, Logistics and Interials.

In the nursing alone over 1000 job opportunities are registered from the multispicality hospital. BSC Nursing, GNM are the qualification prescribed for the nursing recruitment. The Job seekers have to bring the details of certificate to prove age, education qualification and experience for registration. For more details 0471-2332113, 9495746866.