

The Hindu

Recruitment rally from October 15 to 24

The Indian Army has warned candidates aspiring to be soldiers from falling prey to touts.

It is scheduled to conduct a recruitment rally for male candidates in phases from October 15 to October 24 at the Pangode Military Camp.

Able-bodied men from Thiruvananthapuram, Kollam, Ernakulam, Kottayam, Idukki, Alappuzha, and Pathanamthitta could attend. The camp's Colachal Stadium is the venue.

The vacancies are for soldier general duty, soldier clerk/stores keeper, soldier technical, soldier technical (NA) and soldier tradesman. Applicants should have a valid e-mail identity and mobile phone number. They should open www.joinindianarmy.nic.in and click on apply/login for JCO/OR enrolment. The website lists the physical and educational requirements expected of candidates. The age of the candidates will be counted as on October 1, 2016.

After successful registration, the candidate should log in seven days prior to the rally, on October 8, and take a print out of the Admit Card. If candidates faced any problem with registration, they could contact the Army Recruitment Office on telephone (0471-2351762).