

The Times of India

Army recruitment guidance camp on September 21

KOLHAPUR: An army recruitment drive guidance camp will be organized in the city at 11am on September 21 at the boys' hostel of the Sainik Welfare Board in Kawala Naka.

"The camp aims to focus on a candidate's preparedness on the field and written exams, as well as other formalities in the recruitment drive. Mass recruitment will be organized from February 6, 2017. The drive will also be organised in Satara, Sasane and Solapur. Apart from army recruitment drive, the guidance camp will focus on the police recruitment drive. The camp is free of cost," Major Subhash Sasane, the district sainik welfare officer, district sainik welfare officer said.

Those willing to participate can contact 0231-2665812 for more details and register for the guidance camp.

The candidates willing to join the guidance camp can contact on 0231-2665812 for more details and register themselves for the camp.