

76 Naga boys successfully clear recruitment examination of Indian army

Naga boys totalling 76 who had been sponsored and trained by units/sectors of IGAR (North) successfully cleared the recruitment examination of Indian army held recently at Dimapur.

According to IGAR (N) 700 boys were trained by IGAR (North) from all districts across Nagaland, out of which 150 boys had cleared physical & medical exam held at IG stadium Kohima in April 2016.

Finally 76 boys cleared the written exam at Dimapur. 41 boys from Jalukie, Dimapur & Medziphema region, 28 boys from Wokha, Kohima, Phek districts and 7 boys from Zunheboto alone cleared the prestigious selection.

The local populace and civil administration in all districts have shown enthusiasm and positive response to the recruitment rally and efforts of Assam Rifles to provide a platform to young unemployed sections in their quest for a bright and prosperous career in the armed forces.
