

Army recruitment rally in Longleng for 36 vacancies

Kohima, July 10: 164 Infantry Battalion (Territorial Army) (Home & Hearth) NAGA has announced to conduct a recruitment rally in Longleng district on August 9-10 from 6:00 am at Public Ground, Longleng for Soldier General Duty. The recruitment is for 36 vacancies.

A press release from Col C Konwer, PRO (Defence) has informed candidates of Longleng district to report at 6:00 am on August 9 and 10 at Public Ground, Longleng for screening test. The candidates must be indigenous Naga tribal of Nagaland State, should be between 18 to 42 years on the day of screening, minimum weight 50 Kg, height 160 Cm, and chest 77 Cm (Expansion of 5 Cm).

The required education qualification is Class X pass with 45% aggregate marks and minimum 33% marks in each subject. There is no stipulation of percentage in case of Class XII pass. Persons with tattoos visible in physical training dress are not eligible.

Candidates should be in possession of original and photocopy of education certificates, including board certificates in original, domicile residential certificate in original (issued by DC/ADC) and 12 copies of passport size colored photographs.

Candidates should also bring latest character certificate from nearest police station, Aadhaar Card/Voter Identity Card/Ration Card, no objection certificate from civil/government employer, and unmarried certificate from village administration head with official seal (for candidates below 21 years of age).