

The Tribune

Recruitment rally of Army postponed

The Army recruitment board has rescheduled its recruitment rally at Khasa, scheduled for October 1. In a press note issued by the Army recruitment board, officials have cited the prevailing situation at the border for rescheduling the recruitment rally. The officials stated that the new dates of the rally would be announced at a later date.