

The Hindu

3,300 candidates appear for interview to fill up 115 posts

Over 3,300 candidates appeared for an interview held at the Collectorate on Saturday for filling up 115 vacancies of nutritious meal scheme organisers in government-aided schools in the district.

After the nutritious meal scheme organisers' vacancies in the government schools across the district were filled in June last, the district administration gave advertisements for filling up 115 vacancies in the government-aided schools for which over 3,300 candidates applied and appeared for the interview held at the Collectorate on Saturday.

Certificates of the applicants were verified during the interview.

District Collector M. Karunakaran, District Revenue Officer M.G. Kulandaivel, Revenue Divisional Officers P. Fermi Vidhya of Tirunelveli and Venkatesh of Tenkasi monitored the interview.