

The Hindu

Recruitment for Territorial Army in October

The 110 Infantry Battalion of the Territorial Army, Madras, at Red Fields here will conduct recruitment for soldiers for the force at the PRS Ground from October 19 to 23. Recruitment will be done for the post of soldier (general duties) and tradesman (chef community).

Candidates from Andhra Pradesh, Rajasthan, Maharashtra, Gujarat, Karnataka, Tamil Nadu, Kerala, Dadra and Nagar Haveli, Goa, Lakshadweep, Puducherry and Daman and Diu can appear for the recruitment. Interested persons should be aged 18 to 42 years with height of 160 cm or more, weigh 50 kg and minimum chest of 77 cm with 5 cm expansion.

The minimum qualification starts with 45 per cent in the 10th standard or SSLC board examination with more than 45 per cent for soldier (general duty) and a pass in 10th standard or SSLC along with proficiency in his trade for tradesman.

Personnel employed in civil organisations should produce a 'no objection certificate' from their employer. Interested and qualified personnel should appear at the ground in physical training shorts, shoes, original civil education certificates, PAN card, Aadhaar Card, ration card and passport size photographs.

The recruitment process will begin with the physical test from 6 a.m. on October 19. Successful candidates will undergo medical test and a personal interview.