

Apprentice selections held in Telangana

Nalgonda: Joint Collector Dr Satyanarayana advised the students to work hard and realise their dreams. He told them to draw inspiration from former President late Abdul Kalam Azad and never lose confidence till they achieve their goals.

On Friday, he inaugurated central apprentice selections at Komatireddy Memorial Government Junior and Vocational College in Nalgonda.

Later, the selection committee has conducted interviews to the registered candidates who passed vocational course in 2013, 2014 and 2015 for apprentice in various organisations.

29 hospitals, 17 industries, Dr Reddy Labs and government organisations like TSSPDCL, TSRTC, DCCB and other such companies participated in the selections.

All the 307 para medical vacancies were filled while only 400 aspirants were selected for the 619 non-para medical vacancies. Vocational College principal G Ashok Reddy said the selected candidates would get a stipend from Rs 2,750 to Rs 9,000 for the one year apprenticeship.

RIO N Prakash Babu, K Vishveshwar Rao, DIC GM Koteswar Rao, Principals M Narsireddy, Yerra Anjaiah, college staff and aspirants participated in the programme.