

GHMC appoints 140 AEs in a day

Hyderabad: In a major development, the Greater Hyderabad Municipal Corporation has appointed as many as 140 Assistant Engineers on Thursday.

Mayor Bonthu Rammohan handed over the appointment letters to the engineers who have been shortlisted by the Telangana State Public Service Commission (TSPSC). About 20 engineers were yet to report to the corporation.

Interacting with the AEs, the Mayor said that recognising the vital role of engineering in making Hyderabad a world class city, the State government has decided to fill all 160 vacant posts in the corporation.

He appealed to the engineers to utilise the wonderful opportunity. Incidentally, GHMC Chief Engineer Imtiyaz Ahmed who retired on Thursday congratulated the newly-appointed engineers.
