

The Times of India

PCS aspirants continue stir, seek delay in exam

ALLAHABAD: Students preparing for competitive exams continued their fast unto death for the second consecutive day at UP Public Service Commission (UPPSC) on Saturday. They are demanding postponement of PCS-2016 mains exams till the issue of wrong questions asked in preliminary exams is resolved.

The students claim that six questions asked in preliminary exams were wrong and the matter is pending with Allahabad high court.